

The Friends of Perth & Kinross Archive originated from the desire of users to know more about the workings and holdings of the Archive, and a wish to engage with the collections. The Friends provide a channel to meet those desires, to become involved and actively engage with the Archive's collections.

Friends can take part in the activities of the Archive by becoming a volunteer, or members can simply support our programme of events.

Current volunteer projects include creating finding aids to provide easier and quicker access to the records, box listing collections and re-housing documents. We've also done oral history and schools' competitions, and have a newsletter to which all members are encouraged to contribute.

Since starting, the Friends have visited castles and houses and had the opportunity to delve into their private archives, plus we have regular talks and workshops. If you would like to become a member of the Friends simply fill in the membership form.

Perth & Kinross Archive holds a variety of material, the preservation of which is vital to the cultural heritage of the area now administered by Perth & Kinross Council.

Visitors to the Archive come from all over the world. They range from academics, students and schoolchildren, to architects, planners and lawyers, to family, local and house historians. Research topics have included Scottish society in the eighteenth century, the development of Perth, family history, house history, the investigation of local industry and agriculture, the Perthshire militia, WWI and WWII.

I am a UK taxpayer and I want the Friends of Perth & Kinross Archive to reclaim tax on my subscriptions and donations.
